

Indian names and their meanings.

Gananoque.—Large rocks seen in deep waters.

Cataraqui.—Large rocks above water — Ironbound coast.

Niagara.—A compound word, signifying a Strait of water between the Lakes, also the portage and Falls.

Chinguacousy — Young pine trees.

Etobicoke.—District of Alder.

Matchedash.—Bad marshy land.

Schebastican.—Several channels through a Strait.

Cheung.—A sort of Loom.

Otonabee.—Eagle Tribe.

Kanebec.—A Snake.

Ontario.—Beautiful.

Ohio.—Most beautiful of rivers.

Manitoulin.—Island of evil Spirits or Devils.

Nassagrweya.—A river with two outlets.

Eramosa.—A Dog.

Spadine.—Rising ground—a little hill.

Penetanguishene.—Look it is running sand.

Pottawatomic.—We are making fire.

Oemulgee.—Boiling or bubbling water.

Wetemkan.—(Name of the Chattahon Chief Falls) Rolling troubled water.

Fallulah.—Awful, terrible.

Alleghany.—Clear water.

Canandaigua.—Place of rest.

Schenectady.—Over the plain.

Winnipisogee.—The Smile of the Great Spirit.

Ninniwish.—A bull or a lecherous person.